Two Half-Day Training Programs for Assisted Living Residences

Sponsored by the Health Facilities and Emergency Medical Services Division, CDPHE

Montrose: April 1, 2011 Denver: June 23, 2011

Pueblo: April 26, 2011 Loveland: March 30, 2011

Morning: 9:00 AM-12:00 PM

Assessing Residents with Dementia in Assisted Living

This session will examine the progression of memory loss and dementia and how these changes affect caring for individuals. Learn about techniques to enhance the functional status of residents as they progress, to give them the highest quality of care and quality of life.

Afternoon: 1:00-4:00 PM

Family Interactions in Assisted Living: Enhancing Your Communication Skills To Minimize Complaints

This session will cover methods of communicating and interacting with families through case scenarios, using active listening and education to help minimize complaints. Understand from the family's perspective what it is like to have a loved one with dementia.

REGISTRATION IS NOW ONLINE.

You must register in advance to attend these training programs. You may register for just one session or for the entire day. Go to www.healthfacilities.info and click on "Assisted Living Residences" from the list of facility types. Next, scroll to the bottom of the page, and under "Provider Resources" click on "Online Training Registration." Once you have registered, you will receive a confirmation. For more information, contact Melanie Roth at the Assisted Living Residence Program, 303-692-2819 or Melanie.Roth-Lawson@dphe.state.co.us.
